

Al Shire of Lincoln, Kas., dropped in on his friends here Monday.

W. C. Cuddy, the late of Bynumville, was here this week on business.

T. M. Rice and T. P. Scholer talk of forming a partnership for the practice of law.

Mrs. J. R. Gallimore returned Monday from a pleasant visit to relatives in Howard county.

W. M. Botts of Meadville, Mo., came down Wednesday on business connected with his father's estate.

Word comes from Dalton that Mat Wilhite is very sick of typhoid fever. Dr. Baker was called to see him Tuesday.

Our sick people are improving, so far as we can learn, and the rain having settled the dust, the health of the city will be improved.

Two negroes got into a difficulty here Saturday night when one shot a hole through the clothes of the other, barely grazing the skin. No arrests yet.

The Ladies Aid society of the Christian church will give a cake walk social Friday night. They expect a "coonjine" time and a bushel of fun.

Fred Reppenhagen has so far recovered from his recent injuries as to be on the street. He still carries his arm in a sling, but it is getting along nicely.

Dell M. Willis meted those who assisted him in bringing out his new play, "Saved by Royal Love," to an oyster supper at Rutherford's Tuesday night.

Geo. Smith has purchased the Grimes property on the north side from A. J. Rutherford, but we do not know whether he will move into it, as he owns a nice farm north of town.

Mrs. L. E. Cook, candidate for recorder, was over Wednesday interviewing the voters. She talks and shakes hands like a veteran, though this is her first experience in electing.

The Epworth league held an open session at the M. E. church Thursday night. A novel feature at the close was a spelling bee. Those who fell (and there were many) got the horse laugh. The prize (a pound of candy) was won by Rev. McGee, but he generously donated it to his strongest competitor, Willie Winfree.

Miss Rosa Vance and Chas. W. Braun, formerly of this place but now of Texas, will be married this (Wednesday) evening and will leave on the midnight train for Texas, their future home. Miss Rosa is one of Salisbury's nicest girls and Charlie is a brother to our depot agent, Lewis E. Braun, and the prince of good fellows. We congratulate.

Indian Grove Items.

Lou Black was shopping in Brookfield last Friday.

Abe Smith of near Zion has his new residence nearly completed.

Mr. Swain purchased of George Clavin, Sr., 30 head of hogs for which he paid $3.25 per hundred.

A certain young man of this place has business at Soapo quite often. We wonder what the attraction is?

Mrs. Henry Nicholson of near Mendon spent Monday with her daughter, Mrs. Ida DeWeese, of this place.

I would like to say something about the rain we have had, but as Mr. Vandiver forbids I will say nothing and saw wood.

Van Heaton, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Etta, spent Friday and Saturday of last week with relatives near Brookfield.

Hickory Grove Hints.

We beg pardon for not appearing in our corner last week.

Mr. Bachtel of near Newcomer was in our midst last Tuesday.

Jack Williams has added much to the appearance of his farm by the erection of a new barn.

The barn on the farm of Mrs. Heaton was burned Thursday morning. Cause unknown.

Jas. Hague of St. Louis was the guest of his brother-in-law and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Jones, last week.

A number of her Hickory Grove friends attended the burial of their friend, Mrs. Fogg, at Zion last Sunday.

The children of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Barnes are confined to their rooms with symptoms of malarial fever.

Cliff Atterbury has rented the house on the farm of A. Newsome and with his sister and brother moved in last week.

Ed. Shackelford, who has been visiting in Oklahoma for the past three months, returned to his home the first of last week.

The pupils of Hickory Grove are in extending their heart-felt sympathies to the bereaved relatives of their deceased friend, Mrs. Ed. Fogg, who was their former schoolmate.

Bynumville Budget.

Our farmer friends are all wearing smiles this week since the recent rains. Leonard Brockman of Prairie Hill was in our city Wednesday visiting his old friend, F. E. Dodge.

Our city blacksmith has been having a severe attack of tonsillitis this week. We are pleased to say, however, that he is much better.

Rev. Wilson has gone to Bethany to hold a protracted meeting. Rev. Jas. M. Ramsey now has charge of the meeting at Mt. Zion.

Wm. Richardson of west of town cut his foot quite severely Tuesday evening. He was hewing a stick of timber and the ax glanced, cutting quite a gash in his foot near the instep.

"Mine Host" Green informs us that he has been feeding more hungry travelers lately than ever before in the same length of time. Perhaps it is the advance guard of Hanna's wave of prosperity.

A caravan of seven wagons left our neighborhood for the "sunny South" last Tuesday. Rev. Berry Hulett, Dick Hulett, Wm. Powell and Robt. Dysart were the principals. We trust their fondest anticipations as to securing a home may be realized.

Chas. Brewer, late of Kansas, has moved his family to the new home he recently purchased from Rev. Berry Hulett. While we are sorry to lose Mr. Hulett, we are glad to have such men as Mr. Brewer to come among us, and we hope he is now located here permanently.

A meeting of the stock-holders of the telephone line from New Cambria to Salisbury via Waco, Bynumville and Prairie Hill, was held at the town hall at this place Wednesday afternoon. Owing to the threatening weather and the bad condition of the roads only 19 of the stock-holders were present, but enough were here to have quite a breezy meeting. There was a great diversity of opinion as to how the business of the line should be conducted, and it will take one or more meetings yet to settle all the points at issue. In the meantime the "world goes merrily on."

Triplitt Times.

Prof. J. L. Gallatin made a business trip to Brunswick Saturday.

T. P. Knight of Gallatin is here this week visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. James Bartlett of Mendon were here Saturday.

W. F. Tucker, one of our merchants, made a trip to Salisbury Tuesday.

Miss Bessie Kennedy of Brunswick is the guest of Miss May Oxley this week.

Mrs. Ray Boomer of Brookfield is spending this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. N. B. Mahaney.

Dr. J. A. Egan of Keytesville was here Wednesday. He announces himself as being in the race for circuit clerk.

Daniel Sherman, a stock buyer of Sullivan, Ill., was here the last of the week. Mr. Sherman buys quite a good deal of stock in this community.

Oscar Morehead, the youngest son of R. T. Morehead, left Saturday by wagon road for Elreno, Oklahoma, where he expects to lease and fence in a big ranch to raise cattle. Success to you, Oscar.

Summer Squibs.

Mrs. Grady and her bright little son, after several days' visit to her father, Mr. D. M. Brown, started for her home in Ogden, Utah, Tuesday morning.

Wm. M. Howell, a prominent member of the G. A. R. who represents the Grand Army of the Republic at Des Moines, Iowa, was a guest at the Hamilton house Wednesday. Comrade Howell served during the war in the 100th N. Y. volunteers.

Edward May from Chula, Livingston county, has accepted the position of clerk at the new Lakewood hotel. He is thoroughly up to his business in which he has had much previous experience. The writer, by special invitation, (and you know an aspirant to journalistic fame never refuses the like) sat down to a sumptuous dinner at the above establishment. He is of the opinion that the travelling public will be fortunate who find their way there. The elegant new board was fixed in place Wednesday.

Intense Suffering

Caused by a Scrofula Sore which Appeared under the Chin—How a Complete Cure was Effected.

"When I was 15 years old I was bothered with scrofula. I was treated by physicians and took different kinds of medicine, but nothing would cleanse my blood and I almost despaired of a cure. A bunch appeared under my chin, as large as a hen's egg. It broke and caused intense suffering. I began taking Hood's Sarsaparilla. In a short time I saw it was doing me good. I took seven bottles and now I am a sound man, and very thankful for the cure effected by Hood's Sarsaparilla." J. M. HOWARD, Woodland, Missouri.

"My little boy was weak and fretful and the least exposure would cause fever and make him very nervous. We gave him Hood's Sarsaparilla and he was soon improving very fast." MRS. DAVID CAGLE, Pierce City, Missouri.

Hood's Sarsaparilla is the Best—in fact the One True Blood Purifier. Insist upon Hood's; take no substitute.

Hood's Pills are prompt, efficient and easy in effect. 25 cents.

Dalton Doling.

"Squire Chas. Steiman's court, was grinding Tuesday morning."

This vicinity was blessed with an old-time rain in the last few days.

Chas. Cartwright attended the Odd Fellows' lodge at Keytesville Monday night and saw J. G. Payne ride the goat.

M. J. Bass will organize a Modern Woodmen of America camp at this place Friday night with about 20 members. Let the good work go on.

F. H. and Dr. P. E. Wilhite of Salisbury are at this writing at the sick bedside of their brother, J. M. Wilhite, who is very sick. J. E. Gordon is staying at the drug store during Mr. Wilhite's illness.

The Criminal Calendar.

The case of the state against Lon Pope, the farmer living near Mike who is charged with the abduction of 17-year-old Lillie Eads, a neighbor girl, from the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Eads, for the purpose of prostitution, will come up for a preliminary hearing before Justice J. M. DeMoss of Keytesville today. The case had previously been set for trial last Monday, but a continuance was taken by the state until today on account of the absence of important witnesses for the prosecution. The Eads girl has not yet been located.

Ed. Daly, the young man whose arrest for stealing two finger-rings, a pocket-book and $5.85 in money from Elmer Boggs, a Howard county young man, at Dalton a week or 10 days ago, was taken to Dalton last Tuesday to have his preliminary trial. When arraigned before Justice C. W. Steiman, Daly pleaded guilty to a charge of petit larceny, and was sentenced to the county jail for 20 days. Adding to his jail sentence the 20 days he will be required to serve for costs will give him board and lodging at the county's sin receptacle for the next 40 days.

New Repair Shop.

Having returned to Keytesville from Slater, I have opened a repair shop in the Willett property, just opposite Mrs. Hansman's restaurant, where I am prepared to do all kinds of repairing to sewing-machines, gasoline stoves, guns, pistols, clocks, etc. I make grinding scissors a specialty. When you want any kind of tinkering done, give me a call. Satisfaction guaranteed.

Yours Respectfully,
JULIUS REICHENBACH.

What a Lie.

The Salisbury Press-Spectator says: There is a young lady in Keytesville who makes a practice of eating three onions at each of her meals and says she shortly expects to eat four. Her folks are alarmed not knowing whether she is courting death or avoiding courting.

Delinquent subscribers, who never intend to respond to the subscription statements we sent them lately, would confer a favor if they would say so. If they are not making their calculations on paying for the COURIER we want to know it, so we can erase their names from our subscription list.

John F. Robinson, the gentlemanly proprietor of the City drug store at this place, received a letter yesterday morning stating that his parents had lost their beautiful country home near Miami by fire. It was not stated how the fire originated.

WHY WE CACKLE!

We never had a larger, more complete or more stylish line of CLOTHING!

Gents' Furnishing Goods, Boots, Shoes, Cats, Haps, Trunks, Etc.

Than we are now showing to the fall and winter trade, and at prices, too, that will astonish you.

The first secret of success in the mercantile business is to buy goods at the right figures. This is just where we took the first step in our success—we bought our goods at rock bottom prices, therefore we are prepared to give our customers the benefits by supplying their wants in our line with a class of goods, and at such extremely low figures, that our competitors are verdant envy. This is why

WE CACKLE LONG AND LOUD!

And if you will come to our store when you want to buy Clothing, Gents' Furnishings, Boots, Shoes, Hats, Caps, Etc., we can prove to you that we have good reasons for cackling

Yours Truly,

Globe Mercantile Co.

C. C. PARKS, Manager.

The dramatic critic of the Louisville Courier-Journal in his criticism of "A Southern Romance," recently played at Macaulay's theatre in that city, has this to say of Frank W. Hill of Keytesville, who was among the cast of characters in the play: "But the most commendable acting of the evening was Mr. Hill's. In a trying and unsympathetic part he showed capacity for forcible yet unexaggerated characterization that was worthy of warm praise throughout."

The Salisbury Press-Spectator is mistaken in the statement that James Gaines, the negro who was shot and killed by Constable John G. Forrest, Jr., last Saturday night at Forest Green, is a half brother to John Cropp, who was hung at Keytesville on the 11th of June, 1880, for killing a brother of John G. Forrest, Jr. Gaines and Cropp are no relation at all.

John Dorrance, a prominent farmer and stock dealer of five miles northwest of town, fell off a porch last night and broke the small bone of his left leg just above the ankle. Dr. B. Hughes reduced the fracture, and Mr. Dorrance is getting along as well as could be expected since his wife is visiting relatives in Kansas City, and is not at home to sympathize with him.

Those who are interested in raising fine hogs, should read the notice in another column of the big sale of Poland-Chinas to be held at Mendon Thursday, Nov. 18th, by E. W. Robinson & Sons of La Belle, Mo.

Dr. Oliver McEuen of Shannondale has been laid up this week with a rising in his head. The doctor says he would deal rather have a "rising" in his profession.

The protracted meeting, conducted by Revs. Hise, Sharon and others over about Prairie Hill, closed last Sunday night with something over a dozen additions to the church.

C. B. Adams, Mendon's limb of the law, is here today looking after professional business.

E. B. Kellogg of Sumner transacted business at the capital last Friday and Saturday.

Some of Keytesville's merchants seem to regard a newspaper as an unmitigated evil in the community, judging from the way they are trying to kill the papers here by not advertising. What a pleasure it would afford us to write the commercial obituaries of such so-called merchants, who know as much about what constitutes a live merchant as a Hotentot does of heaven.

The practical joker got in his beastly work at Mt. Zion church near Echo last Friday night by changing the wheels of a young man's buggy, putting the rear wheels in front and the front wheels behind, and then hiding the buggy wrench so that the victim of the joke was compelled to take his toasty-wootsy home in that way.

Bryant Cash, who formerly lived 2 1/2 miles east of Keytesville, orders the COURIER sent to him at Chelsea, I. T., having gone to that country to seek his fortune. We hope he will find it as there are no better or more whole-souled fellows on earth than Bryant Cash.

A New York man claims that he has hugging and kissing fits and finds it impossible to resist the temptation to hug and kiss every pretty woman who comes his way. The police judge fined him $10 a fit, and since then he has not had a fit.

Three new cases have been docketed this week for the January term of circuit court at Salisbury. C. H. Brandt et al vs. F. W. Brandt, partition; Benton Shupe vs. Lemira Shupe, suit on note.

The new Methodist parsonage at Prairie Hill is about completed, and Rev. G. A. Lehnhoff, who administers to the spiritual wants of the Methodist flock at that place, will soon move into his new home.

Twelve car loads of apples have been shipped from Shannondale this fall besides those that were reserved for home consumption.

Miller & Lewis will make you bottom figures at their special clock sale Monday, November 15th.

DR. A. C. NEISER,
Dentist and Oral Surgeon.

TEETH extracted without pain. No charges made for extraction. All work first-class and guaranteed. Office over Keytesville Mercantile Co.'s store. Consultation free. Prices Moderate.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

Whereas, Sarah J. Neal and William F. Neal, her husband, by their certain deed of trust, dated September 24th, 1894, and recorded September 25th, 1894, in book 8, at page 406, in the office of the Recorder of Deeds of Charlton County, Missouri, conveying to the undersigned trustee the following described property, situated, lying and being in the County of Charlton, State of Missouri, to-wit:

All that part of lots nine (9), ten (10), eleven (11), twelve (12), and thirteen (13), in block twenty-four (24), in the town of Dalton, Missouri, being the same land sold and included in the following boundary: Beginning at the northwest corner of said lot 9, thence north along the east line of said lot 9, a distance of one hundred and ten (110) feet to a point in said lot 9 fifteen (15) feet west of the center of a brick partition wall, thence east along the center line of said brick wall along lots 12, 11, 10 and 9, the corner of one hundred and ten (110) feet to a point in said lot 9 fifteen (15) feet west of the center line of said lot 9, thence south along the east line of said lot 9, a distance of one hundred and twenty-two (122) feet to First street at the northeast corner of said lot 9, thence west along the south line of First street one hundred and twenty-five (125) feet to the place of beginning.

All that part of lots nine (9), ten (10), eleven (11), twelve (12), and thirteen (13), in block twenty-four (24), in the town of Dalton, Missouri, being the same land sold and included in the following boundary: Beginning at the northwest corner of said lot 9, thence north along the east line of said lot 9, a distance of one hundred and ten (110) feet to a point in said lot 9 fifteen (15) feet west of the center of a brick partition wall, thence east along the center line of said brick wall along lots 12, 11, 10 and 9, the corner of one hundred and ten (110) feet to a point in said lot 9 fifteen (15) feet west of the center line of said lot 9, thence south along the east line of said lot 9, a distance of one hundred and twenty-two (122) feet to First street at the northeast corner of said lot 9, thence west along the south line of First street one hundred and twenty-five (125) feet to the place of beginning.

And whereas, default has been made in the payment of the principal note for $1,200, which was due September 24th, 1897, which note with the interest thereon, maturity is due and unpaid; and whereas, public notice is hereby given that at the request of the legal holder of said notes, I will by virtue of the power in me vested as trustee proceed to sell the above described property or so much thereof as may be necessary at public vendue to the highest bidder for cash at the front door of the Court-House in Keytesville, (Charlton County, Missouri), on between the hours of nine o'clock in the forenoon and five o'clock in the afternoon of said day for the purpose of paying said notes and interest and the cost and execution to the trustee for his services.

DAVID A. WENIBEN,
W. D. MAJORS,
Trustee.

Mrs. L. E. Cook went to Salisbury Wednesday to look after her fences in her race for recorder. She reports that everybody over there promised to vote for her, but John M. Mason, deputy recorder, and who is an aspirant for the same official position as Mrs. Cook, says, while he don't like to doubt a lady's word, he thinks Mrs. Cook is mistaken in her estimate of her strength at Salisbury.
